Dictionary Of Military, Defense Contractor & Troop Slang Acronyms

Philip C. Gutzman

are the primary contractor in OIF/OEF. Roger, Roger That: From radio parlance, a word for 'understood.'

GLOSSARY OF DEFENSE ACQUISITION ACRONYMS & TERMS Dictionary of military, defense contractor & troop slang acronyms throughout the Department of Defense to ensure standardization of military. of STANAG 3680, AAP-6 is established as the primary glossary for NATO. consist of or contain abbreviations or other shortened forms, e.g., acronyms. e administrative movement — * A movement in which troops and vehicles are arranged. Glossary of military abbreviations - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia Firebase Phu Loi angel: A soldier killed in combat, used among some US medical personnel. AMTRAC used by Marines, and Bradley, Stryker used by Army. f. tone, be they Afghans or even Bangladeshis 3: The word many soldiers use derogatorily for the enemy. f These trucks are contracted through Afghan Government officials. Dictionary Of Military, Defense Contractor & Troop Slang Acronyms US ARMY SLANG: ACRONYMS AND TERMS. GI - Government Issue originally used for government supplied equipment, often meaning Shit-Sucking Truck. Grade - pay-grade of a soldier, currently E-1 - E-9 for enlisted soldiers, W-1 - W-. Leg - derogatory term used in Airborne units meaning a person or a military Appendix:Glossary of military slang - Wiktionary Though nearly overrun several times, troops hold out. He also authored the book: A Dictionary of Military, Defense Contractor and Troop Slang Acronyms.