Supernatural Forces: Belief, Difference, And Power In Contemporary Works By Ethnic Women

Bonnie C Winsbro

One of the big questions that is asked about paranormal belief and often quite controversial is whether supernatural beliefs are accepted by women. Lett, 1990 suggests that there is certainly evidence that women are more likely to believe in the paranormal than men. This link between paranormal belief and gender differences has been explored in various works by ethnic women in books, comics, magazines, textbooks, and education. Supernatural forces: belief, difference, and power in contemporary works by ethnic women have also been discussed in these contexts. Noté 0.0/5.
